Description

A Dialogue between Two Friends about Homework

Sania: Hi, Maria. You are looking so much tensed.

Maria: You said right, I am a bit tensed.

Sania: What happened?

Maria: Actually I am so much under pressure because of the excessive amount of homework. I don't have any time for my hobbies. I need to spend the whole with the textbooks.

Sania: But I do the same homework and I can do my hobbies too and even I spend some leisure time.

Maria: How do you do that?

Sania: I follow a schedule for my study and a daily routine. Both help me to plan everything properly. Do you have any daily routine?

Maria: No, I don't have.

Sania: Then how do you manage your times?

Maria: I never thought about managing times.

Sania: That's a problem; you need to learn about time management. If you can use your time properly then you will find some extra time to do your hobbies after doing all the homework.

Maria: Can you help me in that case?

Sania: How can I help you?

Maria: We have the same homework and I can't complete all these within time, I think your routine can help me. I will make a similar routine following your one.

Sania: You can't follow the same.

Maria: No, I will make some changes according to my own preferences. I hope that will be so much better for me.

Sania: I think so. Okay, then I will bring my routine tomorrow with me to school. Or if you want it immediately then you can come with me to my home.

Maria: Let's go, I hope you will give me some more suggestion about this.

Sania: Why not? Of course, I will. Let's go.
