Corruption in India: Short Essay for Class 1, 2, 3, 4

Corruption is a very common problem all across the world. India is not free from this problem. There are so many sectors in government and non-government industries that are doing corruption. It is really bad for the country's economy. If the government can prevent all these corruption, we will be able to make India richer than now in the world. Most of the people who are doing govt. jobs with good designation they are related to corruption. When a big person does this, he can control the police and other administrations and that's how they escape from the law. The government should be strict about them. When someone is accused and proved of corruption crime, most of the time they release themselves from the accusation with their money and power. The members of the ruling party are mostly connected with these crimes. We should have a clear and proper law for that.
