Female Education: Essay (500 Words)

Introduction: The world is growing and being special day by day. But in every sector, girls are not participating equally with boys. What's the main reason behind this? I think of female education. Our life starts with education and if we can pursue education properly we can go really long in our life.

And if we can't, we may not be able to go long. But in this world, lots of females are still away from education. Sometimes they leave study after a certain age. We need to work on that and make awareness among people. That will help us to understand the importance of female education.

Controversy: There are huge controversies about education for a girl. Some people present really funny and weak logic to prevent a girl's education. But we should stand against them and let our girls to be educated. We can't imagine a good nation without educated girls.

If we look at history, there are lots of female scholars who have done really well for their country. We have 'Begum Rokeya', she has started a revolution in India and Bangladesh which let girls start studying. We always need to stay away from the controversies and try to make our girl's educated.

Female Education Advantages: There are lots of advantages of female education. Our whole society can be benefited from the process. Girls are working with boys outside nowadays; if they don't get the proper education they won't get a better job.

That's why they need to pay attention to education. We also need to ensure their study. An educated mother can build an educated family. People won't get proper good behaviour and manners without a good education.

Importance of an Educated Wife: In your family, of course, you don't want an illiterate wife. You want an educated girl as your wife. But why, because the future of your kids depends on that. If she is educated, there is a high chance for your kids to be educated. So there is really high importance of educated wife in a family.

Equality in Education: We should bring equality in the education system all across the world. In this world, there are still lots of people don't believe in equality among boys and girls. But being honest, they are the same. We need to treat the same and make them perfect for each other. If we don't keep the equality, that will hurt them and don't let them grow properly.

Conclusion: Female education essay is a really important one. We all can make awareness to our area and let people realize the importance of education for their girls. If we all start trying, then there will be a change and this change will change the world. We all can change the world together.
