

Essay on How I Spent My Holidays at Home

Description

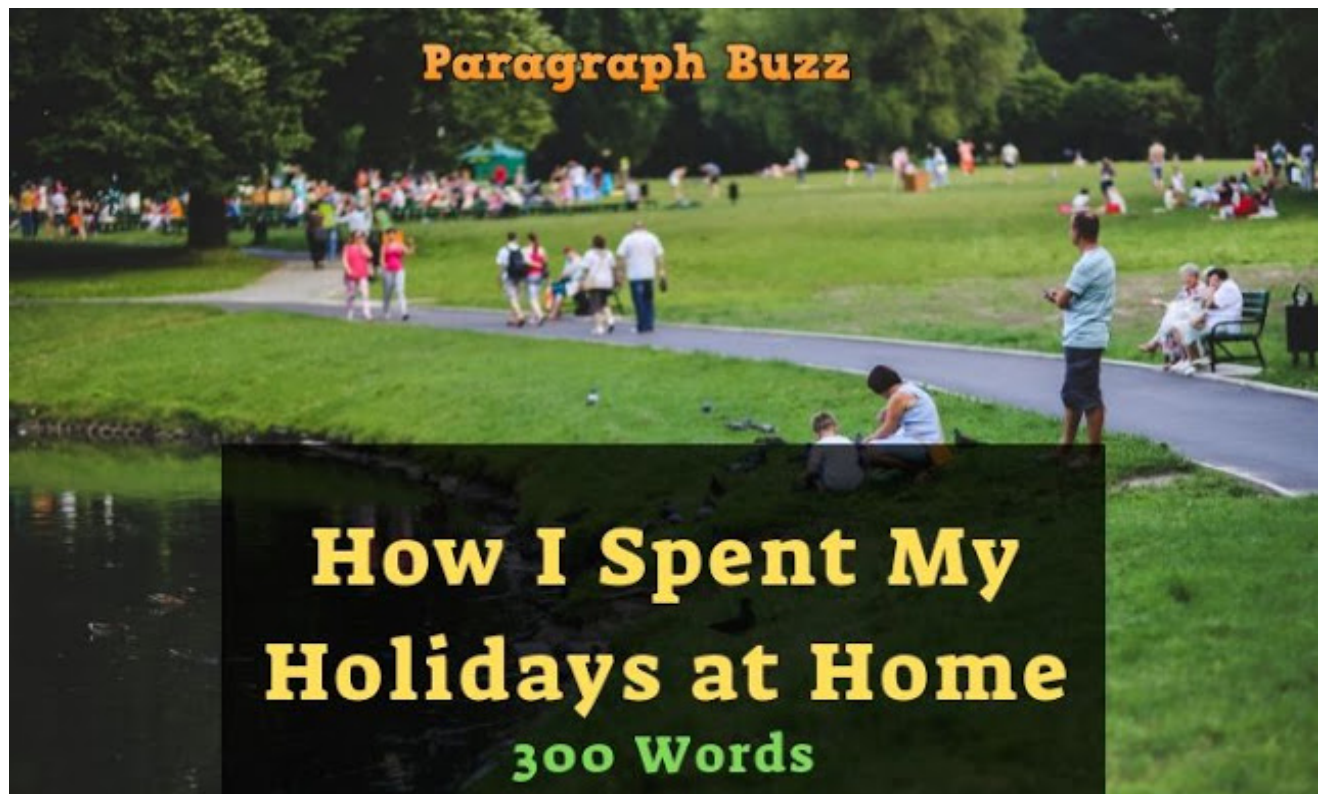

How I Spent My Holidays at Home: Short Essay (200 Words) for Class 1, 2, 3

In my last summer vacation, I have long holidays. I wanted to visit our own village, where I have not visited for two years long. I asked my father to make a trip there. He was agreed with me. He had free time too. I, my father and mother finally visited our village. It takes 4 hours by car journey.

My father was driving the car. My mother also drove for a couple of miles. Finally, we reached our village. My uncles and aunties came to the main road to receive us. They were really pleased to see us. I found a few of my cousins there.

We went home and meet my grandparents. They were really happy. I found so many things have been changed in two years. The village was improving. I was happy to see that. But there was the same natural beauty. In the afternoon, I came out with my cousins to explore the beauty of the village. I met with lots of villagers, I know most of them and they also know me. My father is really popular here because he does charity for villagers.

Essay on How I Spent My Holidays at Home (300 Words) For Class 4, 5

Essay on How I Spent My Holidays at Home

Introduction: I have spent a really exciting holiday with my family and cousins. We arranged a small picnic that was really interesting. My parents helped us a lot to arrange the entire program.

Picnic with Family: Picnic with family is always fun. We can get a chance to meet my uncle, aunties, and cousins. I always love to spend time with my cousins. In the holidays, we get a chance to meet each other. We decided to visit the nearest jungle and there was a really beautiful spot for a picnic. Lots of people go there on weekends.

We also decided to go there. We reached our destination at 10 o'clock morning. We were really excited to see natural beauty. The place was really silent and we found lots of jungle hens and other little animals. I was speechless to see all of these. One of my cousins wanted to explore the place real quick. I was agreed with him. One of the uncles came with us and we took a 10 minutes small walk.

We saw so many things. There was a beautiful river beside the jungle. The water is really clean there. The river was not deep and we were able to cross the river walking through big rocks. We collected some beautiful rocks too. The bird's sound was really sweet and we saw several types of birds. An uncle was describing every bird and was sharing information about them as a bird-expert.

Cousins: In the whole picnic and holidays, my cousins were the most important part of it. They helped me to enjoy the vacation. When I am with them, I feel really good and they all are my best friends.

Conclusion: I was really excited about the whole thing. I wish to be there again. This day is really memorable for me.

How I Spent My Holidays at Home: Essay (400 Words) for Class 6, 7, 8

Essay on How I Spent My Holidays at Home

Introduction: I always love the holidays. The reason is, it comes with so much fun and excitement. Always we do something different for every holiday. We have spent long holidays a few weeks ago and that was amazing and memorable in my life. I spent the entire holidays in my home, but it was significant.

My Cousins: The most important part of my holidays was, of course, my cousins. I have lots of cousins, living in the same city. But we can't meet often because of the tight school schedule and our parents are also always busy. But in the holidays it's an amazing chance to meet everyone.

We gathered in one house and spend a few days together. This time we planned to spend the entire holiday in our house. I said to my parents and they were happy about it. My parents are really loving and they never get worried or angry with me. My cousins are really incredible.

When we meet together, we so many unbelievable things make the meet funnier. So finally all of my cousins came to my house. They were five in total. Including me, we were six. So it's not a small number. We all are pretty much the same age and that's why we have got amazing bonding.

Drawing Competition: One of my uncles arranged a drawing competition for us. The first prize was 10 books, second prize was 5 books and the third prize was 3 books. And every participant will get one book each. He gave us two days to practice. We were really excited about the competition.

First of all, we took a day to finalize the drawing subject. We showed our drawing subject to our uncle. He approved them and gave us some drawing suggestions. Finally, that day arrived. There were four people as a judge. Two of my uncles and one of my aunties and my mother was in the judging team. I was really excited about my performance. We all draw and Nila nominated as the best artist among us.

She draws a landscape that was looking awesome. I loved that drawing. Nikhil was second and I was third. I wasn't worried about my ranking, because they both made an amazing drawing. And overall, it was a fun competition.

Conclusion: I spend a really amazing time with my cousins. I wish I can spend all of my holidays with them. They all are amazing and loving. We have great bonding.

How I Spent My Holidays at Home: Essay (500 Words) for Class 9, 10

Essay on How I Spent My Holidays at Home

Introduction: Today I am going to share my experience on how I spent my holidays at home. That was an amazing experience. I went to our village. We actually go there after a couple of years. That's why I always become excited. There are lots of things to do and see. My father spent his whole life in that village. Spending holidays in the village is really fun for me.

My Holidays at Home: We arrived in the village at noon. it took 5 hours car journey. The road was pretty good. The government is working on these local areas. My uncles, cousins, and grandparents were ready to welcome us. They were really happy to see us visiting them. My younger sister was really excited to see everyone.

When she came here a few years ago she was a kid, she can't remember anything and that's why she has to learn everything again. I find all of my cousins and went to our home with them. My cousins are really helpful. They love me a lot. Whenever I visit the village, they try to spend all of the time with me. They really care about me. I was really tired because of that long journey.

I took a bath and ate some 'pitha' made by aunties. They were amazing. I loved the taste. Then I asked every uncles and aunty about their life. Few neighbors also came to meet my family. Most of them were female. I met with so many peoples. I was feeling really good to know such loving peoples in my own village.

Visiting the Village: After taking some rest and meeting with people, one of my cousins Bhuvan asked me to go out. I was agreed and few of us planned to take a little walk through the village. I wanted to see the entire village. We met lots of people on the road. I know some of them and don't know some.

It's a really great experience to see the village from so close. Lots of things have been changed but the beauty of an Indian village was still there. Villagers are really easy people and peace-loving. They love living together without having any problem. I loved their lifestyle. Most of them are fisherman, farmers.

But in this generation, lots of kids are educated and lots of them are studying in school and college. We have a college near our village and two schools in the village. That's a really good thing that my village is progressing.

My Grandparents: The most important reason for visiting the village is my grandparents. I love them so much and I always wanted to spend some time with them. They were really excited to see us. Especially my grandmother really loves and she loves me a lot. She shared lots of stories with us. I still listen to her stories and loved them.

Conclusion: It was an amazing experience to spend time in my village. These holidays were the best holidays of my life.

Similar Contents: