My First Day at College Essay 100 Words

Short Essay My First Day at College | for Student

I can still remember my first day at college. I just passed my school and started going to a college near my town. But it was not so much close to my house. That area was unknown to me. I had no friends with me there. When I arrived there, I found the college campus really beautiful. I started loving the environment. The first day was really good. There was a welcome party for the newcomers. The seniors treated us very well. Finally, we went to the classroom and I loved the part when we knew each other. That was a very memorable day.
