Description

My School Library Essay 100 Words

My School Library: 100 Words Short Essay for Children

We have got a really big library in our school. According to their data, it has more than 15 thousand books. I am a regular reader of the library. This place is the quietest and calm place in the school. I feel really good when I am there. There are two librarians who maintain all the data. It is allowed for students to take a book to the home. You need to become a member with a small yearly fee. There are different types of books. I mostly read books related to science and history. I am a huge book lover and I love to read these books in the library.
