Paragraph on Self Reliance in 200 Words

To be successful in life human need to have lots of values and virtues in character. Self-reliance is one of the biggest assets of your character. Self-reliance simply means not to depend on someone else in your life. This is very important. If you are relying on someone else for any big reasons, then you must have to regret in the future.

It is true that people can't live all alone; they need assistance and help from others. But you have made your position to ask for someone else assistance. If then someone doesn't assist you, you won't be broken because you will have lots of options.

There are so many works in our life that we have to do ourselves. First of all, it is the basic duty of a person to understand and do his regular works. If you start depending on your sister to wash your clothes or depending on your friend to do your homework then you are doing a mistake that will be something regretful in the future.

You will be unconcerned about your major works and will start depending on someone else. And finally, that will come as a curse in your life and will ruin you.
