Description

Short Paragraph on Corruption in Bangladesh for All Classes Students

Bangladesh is a very beautiful and improving country. The economy of this country is not that big but it is increasing and being one of the biggest economies in the world. In the exportation world, Bangladesh is a leading country. All these good things are not helping the entire country to rise and become developed nations.

The reason behind it is corruption. Bangladesh is one of the most corrupt countries in the world. Almost every government and private sector are corrupted. The corruption starts with the power of politics. There is a very big budget for Bangladesh. Every year the finance minister publishes the budget. Each ministry gets a specific amount to use in improving the country.

But unfortunately, the corrupt politicians and government servants assimilate the biggest part of the budget. And most of them are connected with money laundering. According to a few reports, Bangladesh is having a huge number of rich peoples in the world.

It is according to a report on the switch bank. There are so many reasons behind those types of corruption. First of all the government is pretty much apathetic about these cases. Still now not any major accused has got proper punishment for corruption.
