

Short Paragraph on Generation Gap

Description

Short Paragraph on Generation Gap for All Class Students

The world is changing gradually for our betterment. Day by day, everything is getting better and the same impact is seen on human behavior too. A person from this generation won't interact as a person from the '70s. That is known as the generation gap. It is a good thing to come to changes in our lives, but it is not fine always.

The generation gap could make the distance in the relationships. The biggest relationship conflict happens for this between parents and kids. Every parent wants their kids to follow the family tradition and spend their life according to the parents' decision. But the kids from the modern time are a bit careless. They want to do something their own. It is not bad always. Sometimes they have great ideas to do something.

But the parents with traditional thoughts get afraid of the future on their kids. And they become strict and sometimes they force their kids to follow their direction. Exactly at that time, the generation gap makes problems between relationships. Older persons should understand and accept the current generation trend.

As like this young people also need to understand and respect the older. The belief and the education that they are carrying for this generation, is priceless and important for us. It is possible to turn this problem as an opportunity.
