Description

Short Paragraph on My Dad My Hero for All Class Students

My dad's name is Zahid Hasan. He is a businessman. He is my idol and my hero. I always follow him and want to be like him. Here I am going to share why my dad is my hero. There are so many reasons behind it. First of all, my father was from a lower-middle-class family and he was from a rural area. He fought with his luck to have higher education.

His entire family was against him and none of his ancestors came to the city for higher education. Finally, he came leaving them with a target. He took a part-time job to maintain his education expenses. He started living in a hostel. After struggling for so many years, he graduated and became eligible for a better job.

He was so much lucky and hardworking that he got his first job within a couple of months. Then after working for two years, he started his own business. And now after twenty years of business, he has made himself a business icon in the city. He has got a good personality. Even he has lots of fans and followers.

After all of these, he has raised me with so much love and dedication. He always took care of me and always gave me lots of time though he was busy with business. He has got an amazing bonding with my mother.

He gives speeches in several seminars and business summits. From my childhood, I wanted to become like him. He is my idol and my dad is my hero. I love my dad so much.
