

Short Paragraph on Winter Season in Bangladesh

Description

Short Paragraph on Winter Season in Bangladesh in 200 Words

Winter in Bangladesh is so much enjoyable. There are so many seasons in the country and winter is the second-longest one. There are so many good sides and bad sides to this season here. First of all, let's take a look at the good sides. It's the best time for the best Bangladeshi vegetables and fruits.

You will get different types of fresh vegetables in the market and you will love them. There are different scenes in villages and cities. People in cities seem too busy still in the winter. But villagers mostly pass the lazy time. But sometimes they need to go to their field with their cattle and need to work there.

Kids love to come out and play. In the winter morning, people gather straw and make a fire on village roads. Homeless people face a really hard situation. They don't get enough warm clothes to wear and even they don't get a place to sleep. This season is very hard for them.

There are millions of homeless people living in different cities in Bangladesh. So sometimes the winter season becomes too hard to survive. But overall it is a great time for us. I love this season a lot.
