Dear Mom,

I know you are the best person in the world and I don't need to express it. Today I am writing to you, to let you know what I feel and think about you always. Today is Valentine's Day, the day of love. And on this day, I can't stop thinking about you. Cause love means you to my life.

You're my first sweetheart from my birthday. In this stage of life, I can realize lots of realities that you have faced in your life to raise me as a good kid. You have sacrificed a lot to fulfill my enormous demands. I can feel that now and it makes me feel cry.

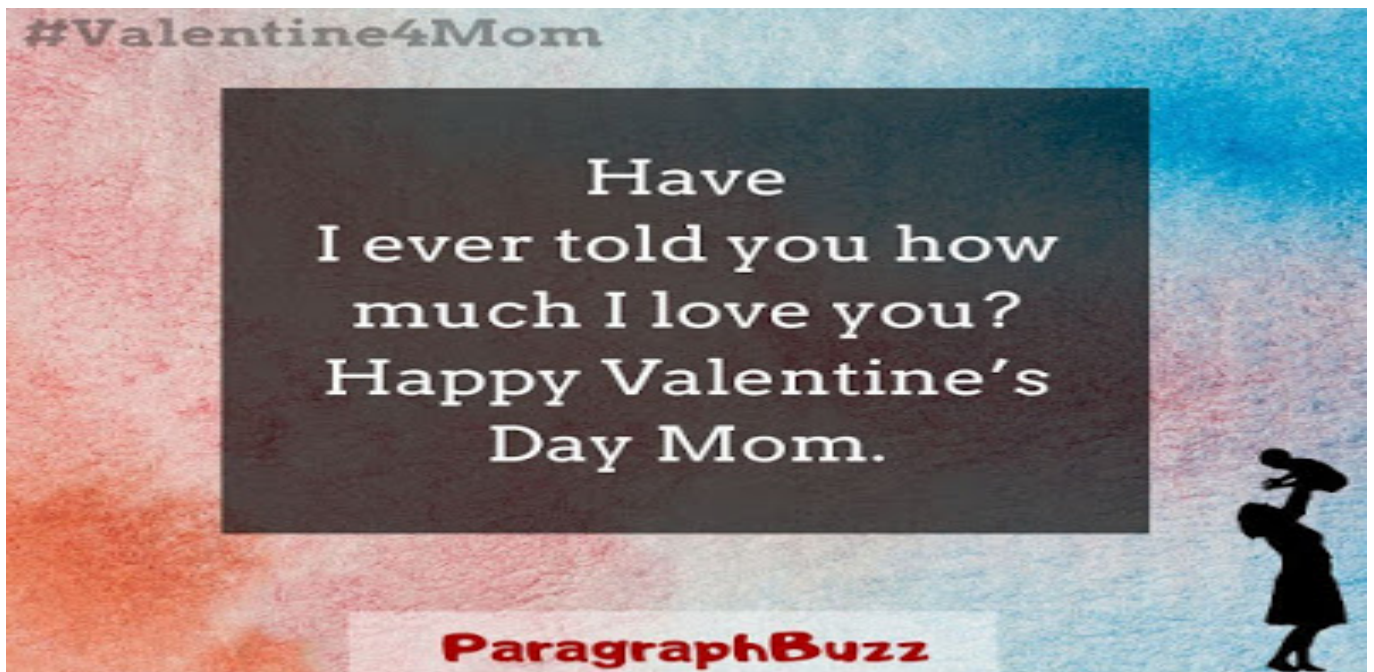

I have decided to spend most of my time with you. And I will do that. Being with you always makes me strong inside and it gives lots of inner strength. Today I went out and saw lots of beautiful peoples were carrying roses and gifts. Here is a little gift for you and a cute card.

The only valentine is not enough to wish love for you. I feel love for you every day. I respect you and want you to stay in my life forever. I need your love, guidance, and support.
