4. I have never seen any teacher so sweet and kind-hearted like you. I always pray to God to keep you healthy.
5. Though you were my tuition teacher, you were one of the best teachers in my life. I miss you so much, sir.

Valentine's Day Long Message for Teacher from Ex-Student

Dear Sir,

It has been around 7 years that I left the university. But the memories are still alive in my heart. Whenever I get time, I go back to these days. I have a few photo albums and a few videos of that time. I miss the entire faculty, the classmates and the teachers. I am writing this to you because you were the best person on campus. I never thought that a university teacher could be that friendly. We respected you as like our father, and you loved us like your sons. That was a really cute and sweet time for all of us. We are lucky to have a teacher like you.

We miss you so much, sir. We wish you good health always. We are sending lots of love, peace, and happiness for you on this Valentine's Day. I hope you are having one of the best Valentine's with your family. I hope this day will bring lots of good things in your life. I can remember our Valentine celebration on campus. We used to bring lots of flowers for all of our teachers.

We want to let you know, we love you, sir.
